THE CONNECTICUT CAMPUS

The Interfrat Dance—Forget and Destroy Prejudice

VOL. IX

STORRS CONNECTICUT, FRIDAY, MARCH 2, 1923

NO. 20

SIXTEEN GAMES ARE LISTED ON 1923 BLUE AND WHITE DIAMOND SCHEDULE

HARVARD, COLBY, TUFTS, NORTHEASTERN AND
U. S. COAST GUARD ACADEMY ARE NEWCOMERS

Eight Home Games Listed—Northeastern and Rhode Island Listed for Junior Week Games—Open Date for Commencement Week.

The baseball schedule for the coming season, as recently made public by Manager Leslie H. Bemont, contains sixteen games and is one of the hardest and best arranged that a Connecticut nine has had to face. Of the sixteen contests eight are to be played on foreign diamonds and an equal number will take place on Gardner Dow Field.

Newcomers

Newcomers on the Aggie slate are Harvard, Colby, Tufts, Northeastern and the U. S. Coast Guard Academy. Several former rivals who do not appear on the list of games for this year are Worcester Tech, Mass. Aggie and Boston College and conflicting dates have been the cause for one or two of these changes.

Brown for Opener

Following the custom of the last few years, the season will be opened with the contest against Brown University at Providence on Saturday, April 7. This game is the opener for both teams and for the past three years Connecticut has been turned back by only the narrowest margins, twice by the count of 3-2 and one of these went into extra innings.

Harvard at Cambridge

Two days later Harvard will be met at Cambridge and this will be another test for the Blue and White so early

ATTENTION

According to the new constitution adopted by the "Campus" Board candidates are required to have at least five columns of news, including heads, printed in the "Campus" before they are eligible for membership on the Board. All reporters are urged to save clippings to present to the managing editor when they total five columns. Clippings dating from January 1, 1923, will be counted if presented to the editors.

Beginning with this issue only reporters will have their names printed in the "Contributors Column". Persons whose names appear on the masthead will not get recognition in this column.

BRUNDAGE REINSTATED AS BASEBALL CAPTAIN

Following a request from a number of students and a general meeting and discussion by faculty committee and students, the faculty committee have decided to reinstate Ralph D. Brundage, '23, as captain of the 1923 baseball team. Brundage was deposed as leader of the Aggie nine following an argument which occurred after the Rhode Island football encounter on Gardner Dow Field last November. Brundage, who has been a star outfielder of the Nutmeg tossers for two seasons is now out warming up with the squad and is sure to fill his old berth in the far garden during the coming season.

JUNIOR WEEK LEADERS MEET TO PLAN EVENTS

Heads of Committees Receive Instructions at Conference Held Wednesday Night.—Ideal Weather Promised by World Almanac.

At a meeting of the Junior Week Executive Committee held Wednesday work was organized for the big time of the year and the various committee heads were given instructions by the chairman, Ronald Bamford.

While it has not yet been definitely decided it is probable that the class will stage their own Junior Play and thus conform to the tradition set by other classes. There is a decided lack of numbers in the class of '24 and many promising actors are not available because of their activities but if present plans go through the Juniors will put on a play with a cast composed of members of their own class which will be the equal of any junior dramatic production.

It is the plan of the various committees to stage various events which shall surpass other Junior Weeks in novelty and originality and at the same time keep within the bounds of expense which have been set in former years. With this plan in mind the juniors confidently promise a week of festivities which will gladden the heart of every Aggie and make him or her genuinely sorry when the festive occasion has passed.

AGGIES GIVE RADIO CONCERT IN HARTFORD

MUSIC AND ADDRESS
MAKE UP THE PROGRAM

Dr. Henry K. Denlinger Accompanied by the College Quartet and Other Musicians Put on Evening of Entertainment for the "Hartford Courant" Radio Fans.

Connecticut it seems is rapidly branching into different fields. A new one was started last Saturday night, when the citizens of Connecticut and neighboring states were treated to some of the talent that exists at the college.

Through the courtesy of the Radio Editor of the "Courant," Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Farrell, Dr. Henry K. Denlinger, the College Quartet, and Mr. Armand Bulbulian, gave a radio concert in Hartford and furnished a great many homes in the state with an evening's entertainment. According to the "Hartford Courant" the program was very well received.

Dr. Denlinger's speech follows in part:

"America, true to a long political habit, has tried to turn away from Europe and wash her hands of the whole affair. Her attitude as regards the debts seems to be that she loaned the money in good faith, she went into the War without any demands of any sort at great expense to herself, and she feels that the various nations that borrowed from her should at least acknowledge the obligations and make a sincere effort to pay.

"The interval that has elapsed since the War has been valuable in helping America to find herself, and in helping Europe to understand that the aid America gives, must not be sentimental. In saving a drowning person, it is necessary to know how to do this

CAMPUS BOARD ADOPTS NEW CONSTITUTION

DUTIES AND POWERS OF OFFICERS ARE STATED

New Positions of Sports Editor and Subscription Manager are Created.—Two Positions Now Vacant on the Masthead.—Candidates Wanted.

The heretofore rather loosely organized Campus Board was converted into a sound and compact organization when its members adopted a new constitution a few days ago. The duties and powers of every member of the Board are clearly set forth in the new document, as are regulations concerning eligibility, elections and succession.

New Positions Created

A position of sports editor has been created. It is the duty of this editor to supervise the writing of all sport news. There is to be at least one co-ed on the Board at all times subject to the rules of eligibility. A subscription manager, whose duty it is to obtain subscriptions and to adjust all complaints from subscribers, will appear in the masthead after the next regular election.

Judicial Committee

Powers of organization are left to a judicial committee composed of the editor-in-chief, the associate editor, the business manager, the assistant business manager, and the managing editor. This committee has the power to remove any member of the Board delinquent in performing the prescribed duties, subject to the approval of the Student Senate.

Elections are to be held during the first week in May and at any other time that vacancies may appear on the Board. The Assistant Business manager and the managing editor are to be members of the junior class.

CONNECTICUT BEATEN BY SINGLE POINT BY RHODE ISLAND IN RETURN GAME

MAKOFSKI PLAYS GREAT GAME FOR THE AGGIES
AND SCORES 27 OF THE CONNECTICUT POINTS

Final Score Reads 30—29.—Rhode Island Leads by Narrow Margin Throughout.—Inability to Hold Ball is Connecticut Error.—Fine Treatment is Accorded Team.

Connecticut was way below the form usually displayed while Rhode Island played over their heads last Friday night at Kingston and as a result, the Nutmeg team came back to Storrs with the shadow of a 30—29 defeat hanging over them. The Aggies seemed unable to hang on to the ball when they did get hold of it, the fumbling being quite noticeable. The only redeeming feature in defeat was the playing of Makofski at forward. Mac didn't get any lucky shots but worked hard for everything he got, making nine baskets from the floor and a like number from the foul line.

The game was a heart-breaker to lose, being closely contested throughout. Although Rhode Island managed to keep a lead averaging from one to two points throughout the game, they could get a commanding advantage at no time during the game. Connecticut was the first to score when Makofski sunk a single counter from the black mark. Rhode Island retaliated with a field basket, and Makofski tied up the score with a free throw. From that time the battle was on, really a battle to see who could score the most, Rhode Island or Makofski. Toward the end of the first half Rhode Island had a spurt and the half closed with the Kingstonians in the lead, 17 to 14.

In the second half Connecticut quickly overcame the three point lead of Coach Keane's men, and although the Rhode Islanders were able to score enough to keep one point in the lead most of the time, none of their guards could hold Makofski in check, the New York State boy scoring all of the first twenty-five points made by the Aggies. Petey Balock broke through in the last few minutes of the game, scoring a double counter which brought the Connecticut score to 27, and tying the game. Rhode Island quickly struck back, Haslam making a field goal and a foul, which ended Rhode Island's scoring. With ten seconds to go Referee Crane called a foul on Rhode Island for holding. Makofski calmly dropped the first one in and just as the ball was returned to the foul line the timer's whistle blew ending the game. That did not bother Mac at all and he added the second point, bringing the score up to 30—29.

For Rhode Island the Haslam brothers were the leading lights, scoring twenty-six points between them, G. Haslam, the forward dropping in several from the center of the floor.

"Jake" Dunn, playing his first game for Connecticut on the basketball court started the game but soon retired in favor of O'Brien. Jake had not played with the team long enough so that

INTERCLASS SERIES NOW CLOSING

FROSH AND SOPHS
ADD ONE VICTORY

Rough and Tumble Game Finds Yearlings Leading Seniors 30 to 5.—Sophomores Win Easily.

The interclass championship was practically decided Monday night when the Freshmen beat the Seniors to the tune of 30 to 5. The Sophomores also defeated the Juniors 24 to 16.

The Senior-Freshman game was played first and proved an exciting encounter from start to finish. Exasperated by the continual "lucky" shots of the Freshmen, the Seniors played in a rough and tumble fashion which availed them but little. "Moe" Daly, Patterson and "Jerry" brought all their latent football skill into play while Mullane, Brundage and Dickens gave an exhibition which spoke well for their ability in a scrimmage. In the first half the Frosh piled up 10 points before a Senior finally looped a basket. "Jerry" did the trick and it was heralded with shouts of joy by the aroused Seniors but it did not break up the streak of scoring which stuck with the Freshmen throughout the contest. In the course of the game "Jerry" made another basket, scoring the only field baskets during the game for the Seniors.

Seymour's sensational shots were the feature of the game while Fitzgerald also piled up a good number of baskets.

The second game seemed rather slow and tame after the furiously contested battle that went before. Although Ganem showed up well playing in something of his old-time form, Kennedy was the big point-getter for the Sophs. Donahue looped them in for the Juniors. Bamford and Lawson also did good work and played a hard fast game.

Next week's game between the Juniors and Freshmen will decide the championship and it is generally accepted that the Freshmen will bring home the proverbial bit of bacon.

KEEN COMPETITION IN INTERCLASS TRACK MEET

TRACK STARS TO COMPETE
NEXT SATURDAY

Large Entry List Indicates that Rivalry Will be Keen in Each Event.—Frosh Favored to Win.

The annual mid-winter interfraternity track meet will be held in Hawley Armory, Saturday afternoon at 1:30 and the large entry list seems to indicate that much interest has been aroused in the affair and that it will be the most successful ever staged on the Hill. Manager J. L. Oberly states that there is still room, however, for several more entries in the various events and that as many as possible should compete for the honor of their class. The freshmen are out in full force and advance dope indicates that they are confident of winning first honors and have even ventured to boast that they will capture more points than the rest of the classes put together. This is in the nature of a direct challenge to the other classes and will be met by each class sending out as much material as possible.

The card is composed of ten events which will be practically the same as those on the program of the first indoor meet with Northeastern. The events have been arranged toward the end that those participating in the meet will have an opportunity to familiarize themselves with actual meet conditions. The contests on the schedule for the afternoon include the following:

40 yard hurdles; 40 yard dash, shot put, pole vault, high jump, 300 yard dash, 600 yard run, 1000 yard run; mile and two lap relay races.

The meet will be under the direct supervision of Track Coach "Steve" Daly, who will have as his assistant Manager J. L. Oberly. The officials for the affair will be as follows:

Referee: J. L. Oberly; Clerk of Course: William Leverty; Starter: R. E. Wing; Field Judges: G. V. Hill-dring, Clemens Diemand; Judges at Finish: George Gunther, H. S. Cavitt, Joseph Feley; Measurers: Edward Me-haffey, Robert MacDonald; Scorer: A. G. Grady; Announcer "Socco" Mettelli."

We observe that the chances for a premier quintet will not fade with "Alex" and "Skinner's" last curtain call with men like Makofski, Balock and Gustafson.

Playing the best brand of basketball they have shown since Alexander was incapacitated, the Connecticut quintet took Trinity into camp at Hawley Armory Wednesday evening to the tune of 30 to 26. Trinity presented a stronger line-up than was expected, and the Blue and Gold team entered the game with a strong determination to bring the ball back to the College on the Hill. The game was fast and furious throughout. Gustafson drew first blood for Connecticut with a great one handed shot from under the basket. The score during the first half remained fairly close, long shots by Canner and Keating keeping Trinity in the running. Two spectacular shots by "Petey" Balock from the center of the floor followed by one from Keating left Connecticut in the lead 18 to 12 as the whistle blew for half time.

Trinity's Desperate Fight

Several minutes in the second half had elapsed before either team was able to score. Connecticut started the tallying again, however, when Makofski dropped one from the foul line. O'Brien followed with a pretty field goal from outside the 17 foot zone. Trinity made a last desperate stand and threw a scare into the Aggie rooters when sensational long shots by Jepson, Keating and Ortgies knotted the score at 26 all. With four minutes to play Balock returned to the game and the team work improved. Connecticut jumped back into the lead on two foul baskets and a long shot from the floor by Makofski. In the last two minutes Trinity made several wild heaves at the basket in an attempt to win the game, but their luck had departed and the game ended 30 to 26 in favor of the "farmers."

Sensational Shooting

The large number of personal fouls called was due chiefly to close guarding. For Connecticut, Makofski made 8 good shots out of 20, while Canner of Trinity did better with four out of seven. For Connecticut "Petey" Balock was the outstanding star, Makofski and Gustafson also playing well. Sharing honors at guard with Capt. "Phil" Lord was "Billy" O'Brien, whose work in the Rhode Island game was of such high calibre that he has been made a regular. Keating and Jepson played well for Trinity, making some rather sensational shots from the floor, while Newman, the diminutive guard, was undoubtedly the best man representing the Blue and Gold.

This is the third victory in the three starts against Trinity this year, Connecticut colors coming out on top in the previous basketball and football

OUT OF BOUNDS

Makofski sure was there at Kingston. Keep up the good work against Trinity, Albany Law and St. Michaels.

Rhode Island put themselves out for CONNECTICUT!!

Every Connecticut wish was a command.

Referee Crane was a "Rick" Dillon type of referee.

Rhode Island is on a winning and haven't lost a game since they were beaten on the Hawley Armory court.

C. B. Leslie '16 has resigned the position of Instructor in charge of the Demonstration School maintained by Cornell University at Trumansburg, and is now employed as Instructor in Breeds in the Department of Poultry Husbandry of the New York State College of Agriculture at Cornell University.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Dunleavy, announce the birth of a son on February 24 at Clarke Hospital, Willimantic. Dunleavy is a Federal Board man, a transfer from Rhode Island State, who will graduate with the class of 1923.

Under the direction of Mrs. A. E. Wilkinson, the faculty enjoyed a dance and get-together in Hawley Armory last Tuesday night. Miss Lucy Toothe played the piano, assisted by Bulbulian. The Armory was artfully decorated and refreshments were served. The dancing and card games lasted until 11 o'clock, with about seventy-five people attending.

DIAMOND DOPE

Many of last year's veterans are out and will form the foundation for the team of the coming season.

The new material also looks very promising according to all the eagle-eyed followers of the big game.

Together with the snappy schedule Connecticut ought to land heavily on the baseball map.

Meanwhile the diamond is still under snow, which will be followed by the usual lake—but the weather forecast is "fair and warmer."

Manager Bemont is seriously considering a field day in which to shovel the snow away and give the sun an even break.

GOOD STUFF

According to all accounts the concert and lecture put on by Doctor Denlinger and the college quartet assisted by Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Farrell was very well received. This is only one sample of the great possibilities that are in store for us once the College broadcasting station is in operation. Many people of the state will soon become interested in the college once they are given accurate information regarding the good work the College is doing for the State. The evening's program in the Capitol City was heard by many radio fans throughout Connecticut and the neighboring states and doubtless served to show many people that are in doubt as to the work of the College that Connecticut is an "up-and-going" institution and that there are some very efficient and capable men connected with the institution. More of this kind of publicity would be a very commendable thing.

THE CO-ED REPORTERS

Since the establishing of the co-ed section a few weeks ago by the members of the "Campus" Board, the girls have shown much interest and accomplished much good work. Although at the present time there is no member of the fair sex upon the Board it is safe to say that if the present good work is continued there will be at least one girl on the News Board after the spring elections. Thus far the copy has been on hand in due time for the editors to prepare it for the printers, and has been of good quality.

In the present issue it will be noted that the Contributors column carries the names of more girls than it does men. Thus it will be seen that the girls are leading in the number of reporters that are working. According to the new ruling of the "Campus" constitution the girls stand an equal chance for membership on the board as do the men. It is possible the weaker sex may carry off the journalistic laurels of Connecticut.

At the present time there is a discussion about the establishing of a position of assistant circulation manager of the "Campus" who shall be a co-ed and shall have charge of all subscriptions of the feminine enrollment of the college. If enough interest is shown among the girls it is possible that this will be done in the near future.

THE BASEBALL OUTLOOK

On another page of this issue of the "Campus" appears the 1923 schedule for the Blue and White ball tossers, which is probably one of the best as well as the hardest ever arranged for a Connecticut nine. Eight of the games are to be played at home so that the Nutmeg rooters may be given plenty of opportunity to air their lungs and to see the brand of goods the boys can deliver.

Candidates are now working out in Hawley Armory in preparation for the first game which is but a little more than five weeks away. More candidates will be on deck as soon as the basketball season is officially closed on March 9. Much good material is available from the freshman ranks, as well as a good number of veterans, including Ralph Brundage who has been reinstated as captain of the 1923 team.

Captain C. R. Crim has been appointed coach for the coming season and is already working hard with the candidates. Good support will do a lot of wonders. Stroll over to the gym during the spare periods on your schedule in the afternoon and give the boys and Captain Crim a glad hand once in a while. Be on deck to watch the dust of the Aggie willow wielders!

THE INTER-FRAT DANCE

For the first time in the history of the College the various fraternal organizations of the College have decided to hold an interfraternity dance to create a better feeling, socially at least, among the members of the different groups. As between gentlemen, it is understood that the fellows will exchange dances with only men of another fraternity, and that they will not reserve too great a majority of the numbers on the evening's program for their own special pleasure.

If this new social function (and it might be well to establish it as a tradition) is carried out as intended and given the best possible support by each individual member of the various groups on the campus, it will be a big step forward toward bringing about a better spirit among the fraternities of Connecticut. Much credit is due the originators of such an affair.

SPRINGFIELD DEBATE SATURDAY NIGHT

Team Now Ready for Annual Tilt with Physical Directors

The Debating Club will participate in its second intercollegiate debate of the year when it meets the Springfield College Debating Team in Hawley Armory, Saturday, March 3. The question to be debated is: "Resolved, That Turkey Constitutes a Menace to the Working out of an International Order in Europe."

The Connecticut team will uphold the negative side of the argument while their opponents from Springfield will defend the question as stated. The men picked to debate against Springfield are Oscar D'Esopo, '25, captain, S. Wilkes, '26, E. I. Collins, '25 and D. Lifschitz, '26, alternate.

This is the second annual debate which Connecticut has had with Springfield and the Physical Directors were the victors. Hopes are running high among the members of the debating team and they will try to avenge the defeat of last year.

The debate will start promptly at 7:30 and the usual Saturday night dancing will follow. This is the most important debate of the year and the Debating Club will appreciate the support of the entire student body.

"BOUNCING THE BLUES" SUBJECT OF LECTURE

"Bouncing the Blues" was the topic of the address by John F. Egan, Chaplain of the New York Military Academy, at College Assembly last Wednesday. Mr. Egan stated that fear is responsible for many of our sins and troubles. Continuing the address he pointed out the value of the home and the church in relation to everyday life and to the progress of the world.

H. S. KNAPP TELLS OF SAN DOMINGO AND HAITI

Admiral Harry S. Knapp, former military governor of San Domingo and Haiti, was the speaker for College Assembly on Wednesday, February 21. Admiral Knapp told of the conditions and possibilities of the country and the attitude of the inhabitants of the two little countries or would-be republics. Continuing the address Mr. Knapp compared the conditions existing in the two countries at the time of the intervention by the United States. The many changes and improvements brought about by the intervention of this country were pointed out by the one time ruler of the little island.

PLATT ELECTED NUTMEG CIRCULATION MANAGER

Norman E. Platt has been appointed Circulation Manager of "The Nutmeg" to take the place of James J. Clark, who has been compelled to leave school on account of illness. Much work has already been done in this department and there is much yet to be done by the new manager.

SAFETY VALVE

POOR SPIRIT

In times that are now past we have heard it said that the Aggie spirited fellows often took it upon themselves to see to it that athletes observed the training rules of their coaches and that the men were doing their best. Apparently times have changed, for now we are told of a certain man who possesses good ability along certain lines and at the same time possesses a desire to participate in the revels that are carried on in neighboring towns. Such individuals need not pose as a hero of the Aggie campus regardless of their past laurels. Nor should they look for a glad hand among the boys when they take it upon themselves to disobey the rules of a competent coach that has done and is doing good work for Connecticut. Perhaps it would be well for a few of the seniors to take a hand in the matter.

TILING OF POOL TO BE COM- PLETED IN FIVE WEEKS

Within five weeks shouts of "Come on in, the water's fine" will be heard coming from the basement of Hawley Armory. No more will the male members of the college be obliged to seek the cooling waters of Cemetery Hill Pond, as was the style in years gone by. The new swimming pool will be a relief to some of our dignified seniors seeking relief from the heat of their caps and gowns at graduation time.

The plumbing is all completed and showers are now being installed. The cribbing for the upper part of the walls and also the forms of the outside walk is now completed. The tilers have at last arrived and have already begun the process of tiling. These artisans expect to complete their work in five weeks.

STUDENT SENATE ENTERTAINS FACULTY

Undergraduates and Faculty Committee Enjoy Social Evening in Phi Epsilon Pi Rooms.

Four members of the Faculty Committee on Student Affairs were entertained in the Phi Epsilon Pi room on Wednesday evening February 21, by the members of the Student Senate, of which Arthur I. Weinstein is president. Cards and pool provided the pastime for the evening. Refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served by the members of the Senate.

The Faculty Committee is composed of Messrs. George H. Lamson, John L. Hughes, George C. White and Howard D. Newton. Professor Newton was unable to attend the meeting owing to the death of his father.

in the season. Harvard has been going well in baseball for the last few years and the Aggies will be out to make a big fight on their first appearance against the Crimson on the diamond.

Clark for First Home Game

Clark University of Worcester will be the opponent to usher in the season on the local diamond and will invade the Hill on Saturday, April 14. In past years the lads from the Bay State have not shown any remarkable ability as ball-tossers and this affair should be annexed by the Aggies. Wednesday, April 18, is an open date but Manager Bemont has had several offers for the day and there is no doubt that the second game on the Hill will see a strong aggregation on deck to cross bats with Connecticut.

Coast Guard Academy to Appear

On Saturday, April 21, the U. S. Coast Guard Academy will furnish the opposition. Records of their prowess have not yet reached the Hill and their strength in past years is an unknown quantity. Colby always puts forth a strong team and when they visit Storrs on April 27, for their initial appearance, fans will have the opportunity of seeing a fast crew in action. The next two games are with New Hampshire and Springfield on April 28 and May 2 respectively. Both are old rivals of the Blue and White with a number of victories to their credit which the Aggies will be out to erase by a win this year.

Tufts and Wesleyan

Tufts at Medford on May 9 is the next in line for the Nutmeggers and this will be another hard game for the Medford lads always are in Class A in the national pastime. The game with Wesleyan will be played at Middletown this year on May 12. Last year Connecticut won both games by wide margins but the Middletown collegians will probably come back this year with a strong outfit.

Junior Week Games

For Junior Week two games have been arranged as part of the '24 festivities. On Wednesday afternoon to start off the program Northeastern College will be on deck to oppose the Blue and White. On Friday, May 18, the ancient rival of Connecticut, Rhode Island State, will arrive on the Hill to do battle with the men of Captain Brundage's team. Rhode Island has won more than her share of the games on the diamond during the past years and with the present promising material the Aggies will be out strong to turn the tables before the many Junior Week guests.

Annual Trinity Tilt

May 23 will be the day for the annual encounter with Trinity in the Capitol City. The Blue and Gold has been falling with regularity before Connecticut and as the game is usually witnessed by many alumni and all of the student body, the team will be out to repeat former conquests.

Holy Cross Next

Perhaps the hardest game of the season will come on May 25 when Connecticut plays Holy Cross in Worcester. The Purple has the reputawithout being pulled under the water and drowned. It would seem as though America had come into a position of finding herself that way. The world needs intelligence and firmness much more than it needs mere sympathy. It needs a direction and guidance of the spiritual energies rather than the non-human energies."

The program of the evening's entertainment was:

- 1 Quartet, "Millers Wooing" Fanning College Quartet
- 2 Address Dr. Henry K. Denlinger
- 3 Quartet, "Winter Song" Cole College Quartet

- 4 Duet, "Agnus Dei" Zwing Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Farrell

ROBERT BOYLE'S

AIR ~ PUMP

The "PRACTICAL" Alchemist and "THEORETICAL" Robert Boyle

THE alchemists wrote vaguely of "fluids" and "principles." Copper was potentially silver. Rid it of its red color and the "principle" of silver would assert itself, so that silver would remain. With a certain amount of philosopher's stone (itself a mysterious "principle") a base metal could be converted into a quantity of gold a million times as great.

This all sounded so "practical" that Kings listened credulously, but the only tangible result was that they were enriched with much bogus gold.

Scientific theorists like Robert Boyle (1627-1691) proved more "practical" by testing matter, discovering its composition and then drawing scientific conclusions that could thereafter be usefully and honestly applied. Alchemists conjectured and died; he experimented and lived.

Using the air pump Boyle undertook a "theoretical" but scientific experimental study of the atmosphere and discovered that it had a "spring" in it, or in other words that it could expand. He also established the connection between the boiling point of water and atmospheric pressure, a very "theoretical" discovery in his day but one which every steam engineer now applies.

He was the first to use the term "analysis" in the modern chemical sense, the first to define an element as a body which cannot be subdivided and from which compounds can be reconstituted.

Boyle's work has not ended. Today in the Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company it is being continued. Much light has there been shed on the chemical reactions that occur in a vessel in which a nearly perfect vacuum has been produced. One practical result of this work is the vacuum tube which plays an essential part in radio work and roentgenology.

NOVEL ATTRACTION FOR INTERFRAT DANCE

The Interfraternity Dance, the first of its kind in the history of Connecticut, is to be held on the evening of March 24. As was stated in the last issue of the "Campus" there will be none of the usual lattice boxes in evidence.

As the purpose of the dance is to promote the feeling of closer social relationship between the various fraternities it has been decided that each man attending the dance will exchange dances only with men other than his own fraternity brothers. Thus, each man will give away what dances he does not keep for himself to men of other fraternities.

The committee expects to have a number of feature dances such as elimination dances and the Paul Jones in order to instill "pep" and spirit to the whole affair.

CAMPUS PHILOSOPHER

A busy week-end; support these activities with your presence.

For money prods progress.

This column is open to contributions from the c-eds. Philosophy should be liberal—and tolerant.

A senior writes the C. P. as follows: "Someone has remarked that philosophy is the art of pretending that things don't matter. If this is true the Campus Philosopher is not alone in his line because there are a lot of philosophers roaming about the campus."

From the above we infer that the "colyum" is under fire. If our tone has been that "things don't matter" we are surprised and sorry.

But then, the least one can do is his worst.

And "the best is none too good."

We are trying to decide whether the above is a writing of apology or an apology of writing, in other words, a writing or an apology.

J. M. Barrie, in his St. Andrews rectorial address on "Courage", furnishes a sentence which serves to end the discussion, and which we submit as a justification of our attitude. He says,

"The new professor will need to be a sublime philosopher."

The Sentence of the Week

"The sadness of all brief and lovely things, The fine and futile passions that we bear."—David Morton.

Don't blame the Philosopher's Column to any one man.

Subscribe to "The Nutmeg" now.

Get your girl for the "interfrat" dance.

The Inter-Fraternity Dance will present an excellent opportunity to find out just how human and interesting our rival fraternity "brothers" really are. Perhaps we will find them marvelously like ourselves. "Even as you or I," quoth someone.

CO-EDS DOWNED BY RHODE ISLAND SEXTET

Last Friday the girls' team went down to Kingston at the same time the boys did. The Rhode Island girls proved too much for Connecticut to handle and the score ended very much in their favor—39 to 11.

The girls were handicapped because Miss Teeter sprained her ankle a few minutes before the game and was unable to play during the first half. Miss Moddell, who took her place, played well but is better known for her position as forward.

All the seniors were back for the game except Miss Hallock. Miss Dunn and Miss Reed both played a good game.

Miss Peccham was the star for the Rhode Island team, playing a wonderful game and making baskets from every angle.

The line-up was as follows:

Conn.		R.I.
Reed	rf	Peccham
Grant	lf	Forb
Dunn	c	Whaley
Moddell	sc	Harrihue
Parker	lg	Duggan
Ellis	rg	Abbot

GIRLS ASSIST

LADIES CIRCLE

Three of C. A. C.'s ever-valiant Sophs, assisted the Ladies Circle in filling their program for a tea held in the church on the afternoon of Washington's Birthday. Miss Marie Bronson read "What is a Hedgehog?" in her usually lively manner; the true darky was impersonated by Miss Laura Kitner in a monologue and several musical numbers were rendered by Miss Helen Levitow.

SENIOR GIRLS LEAD IN NUTMEG DRIVE

The second installment on the "Nutmeg" subscriptions is being cleaned up this week. It will be of interest to the girls to see how they themselves stand in regard to percentages for subscriptions at present. If they wish to start a little competition, we will be glad to publish the results in these columns.

Seniors	100 percent
Juniors	87 percent
Freshmen	63 percent
Sophomores	46 percent

Seventy-four percent of the girls have subscribed to the "Campus," the juniors being ahead with a percentage of ninety-three.

MANY ATTEND THE HOLIDAY PARTY

A very enjoyable Tea Dance was given by the Co-eds to their friends, on Washington's Birthday at Holcomb Hall. Quite a number of the fortunate members of the male sex of the college attended. Tea was served from two until five o'clock in the Assembly Room of the girls' dormitory, which was appropriately decorated in red, white, and blue bunting, with ferns from the greenhouse in the halls and large living room. There was also dancing downstairs and after gliding for a time to the strains of "Lovin' Sam" and "Crimoline Days", a cup of delicious tea with some dainty cookies served by one of the eager freshman co-eds, was enjoyed by all.

The dance was well attended and it is hoped that there will be another of its kind in the near future.

NUTMEG SEXTET IS SMOTHERED BY MERIDEN

Big League Style of High School Aggregation Bewilders Aggie Girls.—Final Score 43—7 Favoring Visitors

Meriden High School invaded the Hill and repeated the sound defeat of an earlier season game when they handed the Aggie lassies the short end of a 43 to 7 score. Meriden started in big league form and had twenty points chalked up before the Nutmeg sextet corralled a single point. Reed was the high point getter for Connecticut while Olson at right forward starred for the game, gathering 25 points for Meriden.

The line-up:

Conn.		Meriden

Hallock	lf	Dumark
Dunn	jc	Levenuskie

SOME BOY!

The telephone in a well-known surgeon's office rang and the doctor answered it. A voice inquired, "Who is this?"

The doctor readily recognized the voice of his seven-year-old son. Altho an exceedingly busy man, he was always ready for a bit of fun, so he replied:

"The smartest man in the world."

"I beg your pardon," said the boy, "I have the wrong number."—Adv.

POOL AND BOWLING CUPS ARE AWARDED

Doctor Henry K. Denlinger, of the College history department, who presided at College Assembly last Wednesday, presented the interfraternity pool and bowling cup to the winners in these tournaments. The pool tournament cup was awarded to the Eta Lambda Sigma fraternity, Louis Ganem, '25 being the cue artist for that organization. The bowling tournament was won by the Alpha Phi fraternity.

This is the first time that these cups have been awarded under the new ruling that they must be won for three consecutive seasons before they become the property of any fraternity.

The editor, business manager and associate editor are to be seniors.

Candidates

All freshmen who are trying out for the editorial end should report to the editor and also the managing editor when they begin to write. The managing editor will give out the weekly assignments and keep records of the work turned in by the reporters. The reporters shall also file clippings of their articles that are printed. Any article that is written and not printed for reason of policy of the Board will carry full credit toward the necessary five columns required for eligibility. Candidates for the editorial board must have at least five columns printed before they can be considered for membership on the board.

Candidates for the business board should report to the members of the board under whom they are to work and also to the business manager in order that the new candidate gets full credit for the work he or she may be doing.

Vacancies on Board

At the present time there is a vacancy in the editorial board, that of sports editor; and one in the business board, that of advertising manager. Any junior, sophomore or freshman who is interested in either of these positions should report at once to the head of the board he wishes to try for.

tion of putting out strong teams in every respect and this is true of baseball more than any other. Last year they were rated as one of the strongest college teams in the country and the ability of Connecticut will be largely rated by the result of this contest.

Memorial Day Encounter

Springfield will play a return game on Gardner Dow Field on Memorial Day. This followed by another home contest on June 9, opponent yet to be decided, will round out the schedule. As the last game will be during Commencement Week it is planned to have a rival team which will put up a good battle and keep the guests keyed up to a high point throughout the contest.

With such a schedule before the team, Aggie supporters feel that the season cannot help but be full of pep and action.
